Legion Prepares Memorial And Decoration Day Program

As Memorial Sunday and Decoration Day are drawing near Messrs. Fox, Beck and Johnson have been selected as a committee from the American Legion Post to work in conjunction with our grand old citizen, comrade S. B. Kiser of the G. A. R., who has had active charge of getting up the program for these two days for the past twenty some odd years. The program will be published in the local papers next week. The Legion members will turn out in uniform for Decoration Day and will also attend the memorial services on Sunday but not in uniform. All the rest of the ex-service men are invited to attend the services of this organization.

Red Cloud Will Celebrate The Fourth of July

At a meeting of the Fire Department Tuesday evening the members decided to celebrate the Fourth of July here this year. Different committees were appointed and have commenced making plans to make this one grand event that will not be forgotten for many years to come. With the co-operation of the business men no doubt a very good program can be arranged for this day. Let every body get busy and boost to make it a success.

The Explorer Pleases People

"The Explorer," a four act drama, was presented by local talent last Monday evening for the benefit of the Red Cloud Post of the American Legion to a large and appreciative audience. Charles Pichler and Miss Grace Kestle as Alexander Mackenzie and Lucy Allerton played the leading roles splendidly. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Poinicky appeared as Richard Lomas and Mrs. Crowley in a courtship that was very amusing, while Everett Stroup carried out the part of George Allerton, a young man with no moral courage, so well that part of the audience felt sorry for him. Mrs. Everett Stroup appeared as the aristocratic Lady Kelsey in a manner that was very pleasing. The interpretation of the parts of Dr. Adamson by Elton Pope and Dr. James Carberry by Lloyd Barker was good. Lloyd Hines, who directed the play, represented Sir Robert Boulger, Bt., in a typical English fashion. The entire company is to be congratulated as the play is a difficult one to present.

Miss Helen Windolph, who did fairy, ballet and Spanish flirtation dancing after the first act, greatly delighted those present. She is a wonderful little dancer and was loudly applauded. The orchestra composed of Messrs. Betz, Mercer, Reed and Windolph, played between acts. The selections were appropriate and their execution unexcelled.

After the performance was over all those who took part in the play and the members of the orchestra were guests of the American Legion at a dainty lunch served at the Powell & Pope cafe.

Fire Damages Valley House

Wednesday evening about ten thirty a fire broke out in the old Valley House on East Fourth Avenue. After the alarm had been turned in the firemen responded quickly and with two hours fighting had the fire out, but it burned the roof off the building and damaged the second story considerable. This building is one of the old landmarks of the city and in the early days was a popular hotel. It is owned by John Erickson and we did not learn whether any insurance was carried. Two tenants occupied the building and part of their household belongings were saved. The department bought two new nozzles sometime ago and Chief Havel spoke highly this morning of the manner in which the firemen used this equipment to gain control of the flames.

Sam Temple Passes Away

Word was received in this city Tuesday to the effect that one of our former citizens, Sam Temple, of Kansas City, Mo., had passed away on Monday afternoon after having suffered from a paralytic stroke which he received a few days ago. Mr. Temple had been spending several months at different health resorts in hopes of improving his health and recently returned home. While a resident of this city several years ago he was engaged in buying and shipping live stock and made many friends here who regret to hear of his demise. Several years ago he moved to Kansas City, Mo., where he has since been an employee of the Ragland Live Stock Commission Co., and was one of their most faithful men. A wife, one son and a daughter, along with a large circle of friends are left to mourn his death.
